What She Drives Reveals Her Personality-- Here are some pointers from Mary Butler, senior editor of cars.com about how to size up her personality based on her ride.

If she drives a compact car: She values practicality and lives a low-maintenance lifestyle. You won't have to drop a ton of cash on dates with her.

If she drives a hybrid/electric car: She is generous and likes to help others. She's into the underdog and will be okay with any of your physical shortcomings.

If she drives a pickup truck: She is an easygoing gal who's as solid and dependable as her F-150. She wants a man's man who will take control in the bedroom. VRRROOM!

If she drives a SUV: If she drives a compact SUV (like the Element,) she's forward thinking and adventurous. If she drives a supersized SUV (like an Expedition,) she has one message for you: "Move over baby, it's all about me!"

If she drives a status car: She's successful, aggressive and confident in her Lexus. Underneath that shiny expensive exterior is a very warm interior.

If she drives a vintage car: Her cool, classic car shows that she needs her space. She appreciates classic quality.
